Stars of the week

All of you are our stars of the week, for managing at home, being helpful to your families and completing your home learning.

Wellbeing- feeling safe and happy

Wellbeing is at the top of our agenda; happiness is so important. If you are finding things really tricky, there are some things you can do:

Speak to someone you are with

Speak to someone else you know on the phone

Speak to us via email:

There is more information for adults who may need support for different reasons in the office section at the end of this newsletter...

Keeping in touch

Teachers have really enjoyed being in touch with children and families over the last couple of weeks. We really miss you and it is lovely to hear your voices and know that you are well, and to be able to talk through anything you wish to talk about.

You can keep in touch with us via the email addresses already mentioned (and in the office section), looking at the wonderful work achieved by the children in our Home Learning Blog (link on the Bressingham Primary School website home page) and via Facebook, which has many links to our YouTube channel, Bressinghamlearningfun!

Alongside the clips to help with home learning, members of staff are reading stories, poetry or information texts each day, for the children to enjoy, and also there is the occasional clip just for fun. The staff toilet roll challenge is one example!

School Closure

We are currently closed as all our pupils are being provided for at home. Please be aware that if you should need anything, we can be contacted via email at info@bressingham.norfolk.sch.uk.

We know that there have been stories about schools reopening, but have no official news. We will of course keep you updated when there is something to share with you about our school.

Home Learning

Thank you for helping your children to stay on track with their peers and ready to return, confident, to school, when that happens.

The teachers are still enjoying preparing activities for you to do at home each week, which are available on our school website: Bressingham Primary School.

To get to the website, search Bressingham Primary School then when you are on the home page, scroll down to find Click here for the latest Home Learning Activities. It's beneath our school blogs...

Whole School Blog

When you click on this link, you will find a link to a page for your year group...

The first document is an overview of the week, which has all the home learning activities in it- click on the link to open it. Beneath there may be some other documents you will need to complete that week's home learning and 1 or more links to YouTube clips to help you.

If you need any help, email your teachers, and when you have finished, send your work in to your teachers- see the office section for email addresses. We will give you feedback and can share some of your learning on our Home Learning Blog and a few pieces in our newsletters.

Enjoy your learning!

Celebrating home learning...

Your wonderful work is filling the blogs on our Home Learning Blog which is now on the home page of our school website, (search Bressingham Primary School and scroll down on the home page).

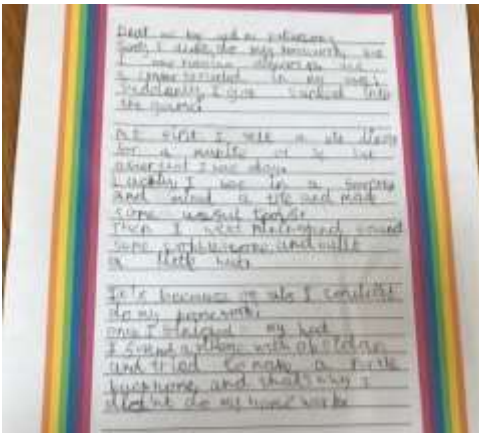

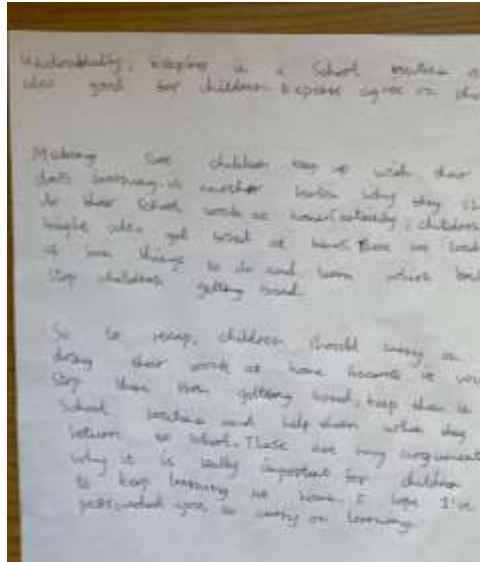

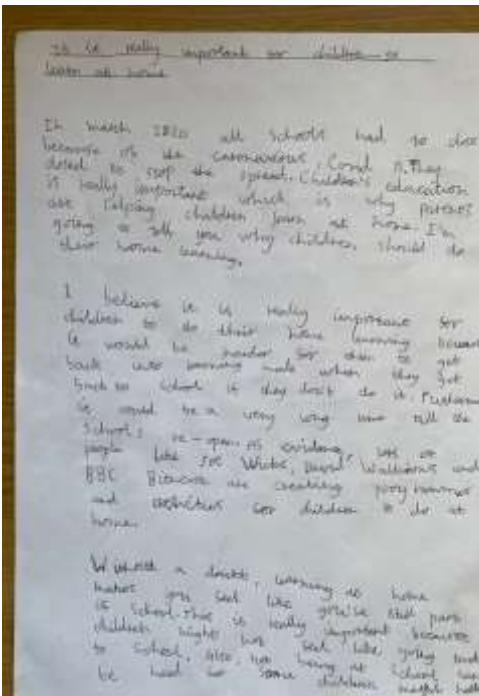

And wonderful excuses for not doing home learning...

...and wonderful reasons why you should!

Thank you all for your support of our wonderful children and school,
Dawn Gudde

For anyone who is getting a little bored sometimes, Years 3, 4, 5 and 6 have written about their ideas for what you could do while at home- have a look at their ideas in the Year 3-6 blog dated week commencing 20.4.20- they are amazing!

Please keep sending in your learning activities to the class emails as well- we love to see you and what you have been learning about, and will put examples of learning on the Home Learning Blog.

Take care everyone and keep keeping safe...

Notes from the office...

Coronavirus information

General information from the Government continues to be provided at the following web address:

<https://www.gov.uk/coronavirus>

Internet Safety

The following sites are recommended by the Government for parents to use to keep their children safe online. While children are not in school and while some of their learning is online, it is more important than ever that parents are aware of keeping their children safe online, and children keep to the sites, pages and clips that they have been told they can go on. Please be aware...

- Internet matters - for support for parents and carers to keep their children safe online
- London Grid for Learning - for support for parents and carers to keep their children safe online
- Net-aware - for support for parents and careers from the NSPCC
- Parent info - for support for parents and carers to keep their children safe online
- Thinkuknow - for advice from the National Crime Agency to stay safe online

UK Safer Internet Centre - advice for parents and carers

These sites are also good to look at with children:

Support for mental health

We have been provided with the following by the Early Help Hub at South Norfolk, which may be useful for you or for someone you know: For mental health support, there are two suggestions:

www.justonenorfolk.nhs.uk/mentalhealth

and

Norfolk and Suffolk NHS Foundation Trust has launched a First Response helpline today, offering immediate support for mental health difficulties. The free phone service, staffed by mental health professionals will provide reassurance, advice and support 24/7. Call 0808 196 3494.

Emergency shopping suggestion from the Early Help Hub

There is also a suggestion for emergency shopping:

Early Help Hub

The Early Help Hub for South Norfolk, in Long Stratton, is a good point of contact for many different services, should you have any urgent needs or worries:

<https://www.south-norfolk.gov.uk/residents/south-norfolk-help-hub>

See Something, Hear Something, Say Something

Norfolk have also launched a campaign for awareness of possible abuse, entitled See something, hear something, say something...

Messages for school

Please ensure that any messages for the school for children's work are sent to the class emails:
